Hello everyone! I know it's a while yet before Thanksgiving officially starts – but the guys and myself here at Road Rash Magazine have so much to be thankful for, we might as well start now. First off, I'd like to thank you, our loyal and informed readers. By picking up this mag and patronizing our advertisers, you have pulled us through some tough times and kept us away from the bill collectors for five straight years now.

In case this is the first Road Rash you've ever seen (or the first one in a while), I should explain that although we normally feature a bevy of local contributors by way of columns and articles - you are special enough to be holding our five-year anniversary "pictorial" edition which features more photographs and more color than we have ever published at once. In fact (unless you can't tear yourself away from the Table Of Contents or our publishing disclaimer), this is the closest thing to an article you'll find in this particular edition. The old saying goes something like, "A picture is worth a thousand words," so I guess the following pages will say much more than a mouthful. I guess you could call this edition our tribute to the tons of people who have submitted photographs to the magazine for the last five years. Or, I suppose you could say that we're paying homage to the people that make up the local biking community... Or, as one of our regular columnists put recently, "Hey, we finally get a month off after five years... Great." Whatever your point of view, we hope you enjoy seeing these snapshots taken over the last five years as we've grown as friends, as a magazine, and as a biking family.

I should also say, that because we've dug deep for many of these pictures and some of them were taken four or five years ago, we will undoubtedly forget to mention some photographers or give them the credit they deserve. Hopefully they'll forgive us.

By the time you read this, our five-year anniversary party, The Road Rash Biker Bash, will be but a memory and many of you will be looking forward to the Chopperville USA Back Yard Party starting on September 1, the Walker County Stocking Full of Love Poker Run on September 3, the Trail of Tears Commemorative Motorcycle Ride on September 16, or any number of other rides or runs that are just around the corner. For more information, you can check out our Event Listings here in the mag or on our Web site, www.roadrashmag.com.

I recently had a birthday and I would like to thank my girlfriend Rebecca for pulling off two consecutive surprise parties and the wonderful folks who were thoughtful to attend and contribute their time and effort as well. I had a great time!

As always, I'd like to remind everyone to please make it your business to know which businesses are truly bike friendly and to spend your money accordingly – to support those who support you. Since this is our anniversary edition, I dusted off our premiere issue (September 2001) and thought I'd end this month's "Ramblings" the same way I ended that one: "If you support us, we will thrive. If you don't, we will shrivel up and blow away. I have enjoyed every minute of it, (even the hard parts), and I don't want to see it end. Please lend us your support!"

The Low Down:

When we first decided to feature several Biker Chicks for our Special Anniversary Edition, I thought it was a great idea... But as you can tell, there was just no way to fit five years of good-looking women on two pages.

Special thanks goes to the throngs of hot babes who've graced our magazine with their images and our staff with their presence. Thanks for five years of scenery!

From A Rider's Prayer

Like men of steel, on Silver Wings
They sparkle in the light
Then with a roar and rumble
They ride out of our sight

Sometimes when one has fallen
Never to rise again
You can hear the others calling
Like thunder on the wind

Motormen are a special breed
They live to ride the wind
And when you hear the thunder roar,
The Fallen Ones ride again

LOST BROTHERS & SISTERS...
